TAFT PLEASSED BY RESULTS OF TRIP AS HE SEES THEM

President Concludes Forty-five Day Political Tour of West; Now to In-vade East

LITTLE HOSTILITY IS SHOWN

Undercurrent of "Show Me" Attitude Is Apparent in Many Insurgent States

DAVIS CALLS TRIP A "FROST"

Early Utterances on Trusts Conservative, but Grow More Radical Daily

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Turning his face eastward at the end of forty-five days of political joy riding, President Taft today concluded his "winning of the west."

But one thing is settled, and that is, according to the president's supporters, the trip has done no harm. The president expressed himself today as "well satisfied" with the results of the trip, as he sees them.

Twenty-two states, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from Massachusetts to California have heard the president in the last forty-five days. Cities, towns and villages with an aggregate population of 5,000,000 people have entertained him, and smaller towns with populations aggregating 2,000,000 more have heard him make brief rear platform speeches as his special train passed through. There have been 110 scheduled stops on the trip, and nearly twice as many more "rear platform" stops.

Altogether the president has made about 300 speeches. All of these have been confined to seven subjects. The president started on the trip with five big speeches—peace, his explanation of his tariff vetoes, an appreciation of the tariff board, his attitude toward trusts, and a defense of the supreme court Standard Oil and Tobacco decisions. To these he later added speeches on conservation and the necessity for improvement in agriculture. These seven have embraced every speech he has made on the trip.

His early utterances on the trusts were rather conservative, but as the trip progressed he went further and further on this point, until when he reached Chicago, after the government suit against the Steel trust had been filed he announced unqualifiedly that "the law must be enforced."

Only one other speech has aroused any real enthusiasm on the trip, and that was peace. Politically, the result of the president's trip remains to be written in the electoral college in 1912. But political sharps all along the route have generally agreed that Taft has succeeded in fixing the attention to the people he has talked to, on the next session of congress. He has promised tariff reform at the next session, and in the accomplishments of the winter, it is generally conceded he must look for the verdict of the people. No open hostility has shown itself on the trip, but in the states of Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, California, South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin, an undercurrent of the "show me" attitude was apparent. In these states, republican insurgency is making its fight, and political sharps have generally expressed surprise at the amount of sentiment apparent in these communities in favor of Woodrow Wilson, if he is nominated by the democrats.

In Oregon the president's opposition to what has become to be known as the "Oregon idea"—the initiative, referendum and recall, won him no friends. The day before he arrived in California that state voted overwhelmingly for these reforms, despite the fact that Taft, throughout his trip had vigorously denounced the recall of judges.

From now on the president will be in the east. Twelve more days the "White house" will be cavorting about on wheels. Pittsburgh tomorrow, Morgantown, W. Va., the next day, New York for the big naval review on November 2, a few days at Hot Springs, Va., for a rest and then the president will campaign in Kentucky and Tennessee after spending election day at home in Cincinnati.

It will be November 12 before the president reaches the White house again and then he will have been on the road fifty-seven days. He will then have but about two weeks to prepare for the opening of the long session of congress.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 30.—Characterizing President Taft's swing around the circle as a "frost" and "vain attempt to gain political prestige," Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas, who, with his bride, is stopping here on their honeymoon, today asserted that the chief executive's long jaunt had entirely failed in its purpose and that Taft would return to Washington less liked generally than he was before he started.

HIT LABOR CAUSE OVER M'NAMARAS

Trial of Alleged Dynamiters Resolving Into Fight on Federation of Labor

INTERESTS DEFRAY EXPENSE

Present Trial Is Only Foundation for Later Trial of John J. McNamara

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 30.—Determined to force jurors Frampton and Winter from the box without being compelled to waste peremptory challenges, the defense in the McNamara trial renewed its efforts when court reconvened today to compel Judge Bordwell to recognize challenges against both, because they said they held conscientious scruples against inflicting the death penalty on circumstantial evidence. Attorney Darrow and associates held a conference before court opened and decided that if Bordwell refused to entertain such a challenge, they would later try to impeach both men. They have witnesses who will swear that both frequently expressed the opinion that the defendant was guilty.

The real reason the state is willing to accept both men has become known. District Attorney Fredericks and his associates realize that, in the present trial they are only laying the foundation for the trial of John J. McNamara. Because of the latter's prominent position in the labor world and from the fact that Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and other big leaders of the American Federation of Labor are on record as declaring John McNamara innocent, it is alleged that his conviction is earnestly desired by the interests which are said to be defraying the enormous expenses of the Burns Detective agency in working up the evidence in this case.

It is considered certain by the Merchants and Manufacturers' association here and by the National Association of Manufacturers who for years has been fighting the federation, that the conviction of John J. McNamara would be almost a death blow, because of the openly expressed confidence in him by all of the big labor chieftains of the country.

AMENDED TAX LEVY MAKES REDUCTION

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 30.—The state of Wisconsin, through the initiative of Governor McGovern, will remit to the taxpayers of the state nearly $1,000,000 in the form of an amended tax levy. Secretary of State Fremont will immediately notify all the clerks of county board to that effect. The remittance of $940,235 as announced by Governor McGovern today means that instead of an increased levy of $966,000 for 1911, there will be a net reduction of $34,235, and there will still be left a surplus of $1,558,903.28 in the general fund of the state as against a surplus of $1,267,399.95 on the same date in 1910, and $847,470.77 in 1909.

SAYS ASSESSORS DISREGARD OATH

Report of Supervisor of Assessments Brings Out Fact in Regard to Assessments

Assessors do not fulfill their oath of office, according to the report of J. E. Keiser, supervisor of assessments, who today completed his annual report which will be submitted to the assessment committee on Monday. The report states that the assessors take an oath to give the true value of land and personal property and that in every case they give the value at from ten to sixty per cent lower than its true value. The true value must be obtained in order that the amount each district should pay will be in proportion to the value of its property, as a town or district, where the assessor places the value at less than its true value, would not pay its full share of the tax.

This necessitates the supervisor of assessments placing the true value, which work could be dispensed with if the assessors carried out their work according to their oath of office.

In his report, Mr. Keiser also stated that the value on personal property is greatly underestimated in La Crosse county and that "only a few of the people who are so unfortunate as to be unable to place their personal property out of the view of the assessor, pay their full share of the tax and the dishonesty of the others increases their share."

At the meeting of the committee Monday the full report will be gone into carefully and accepted as a whole or part, and will later be submitted to the county board.

CHINESE THRONE PLAYS BOTH ENDS

Extends Offer of Constitutional Rule and Tries to Borrow Money for War

U. S. IS OUT—MANEUVERED

Anglo-Franco Syndicate Gets Tight Grip on Chinese Affairs Through Loan

PEKIN, Oct. 30.—The government issued its expected edict today granting what amounts to a constitutional rule for China. At the same time it is reported to be making huge offers to certain foreign governments for aid in upholding the present system of despotism.

The edict, as already forecasted, provides for a parliament, revision of the present ineffective constitution, the substitution of civil for military methods of maintaining order, responsibility of the cabinet to parliament instead of the emperor, and curtailment of the latter's power to a point considerably less, for example, than that of the president of the United States.

It is not known positively with what foreign governments the Manchurian rulers are negotiating, but discovery that it has arranged with Baron Cotti for an $18,000,000 loan from an Anglo-Franco-Belgian syndicate strongly suggests that it is from England and France that it hopes the most.

Naturally this is a black eye for the rival Anglo-Franco-German syndicate headed, it is said, by Pierpont Morgan, and the Japanese group, both of which had previously rejected the Chinese government's overtures.

In the case of England and France, the changed situation means merely changes in the financial groups interested. Politically the Anglo-Franco combination will get a tighter grip on China than ever if the loan arrangement is permitted to stand.

In diplomatic circles here and in Berlin, governments are expected to be highly dissatisfied. The United States, in particular, is considered to have been almost ridiculously outmaneuvered, inasmuch as it was understood to be counting on taking a very important part in settling Chinese affairs, with England as its strongest supporter.

The rebels have already served notice on foreigners that, after the revolution has been accomplished, the new government will repudiate the old one's obligations.

M'REA DEFENSE OPENS

OPELOUSAS, La., Oct. 30.—Attracted by the report that this was to be the "big day" of the trial of Mrs. Zoe Runge McRea and that the accused was to take the stand in her defense and tell of the alleged insults of Allen Garland, the boy she is accused of murdering, a great crowd gathered in front of the little courthouse here this morning, awaiting the arrival of Mrs. McRea, her husband and her eight-year-old daughter. The prosecution having closed its direct case late Saturday afternoon, the defense opened this morning with a short speech to the jurors.

JOSEPH PULITZER STRICKEN ON BOAT

Best Known and Best Beloved of American Newspapermen Dies at Charleston

PAPERS HONOR PUBLISHER

Proprietor of New York World and St. Louis Post-Dispatch; Funeral This Week

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The body of Joseph Pulitzer, best known and probably best beloved of American newspapermen, proprietor of the New York World and St. Louis Post-Dispatch, who died suddenly on board his yacht in Charleston, S. C., harbor, will be brought north today, the train starting from Charleston at 4:40 this afternoon. The private car on which Mrs. Pulitzer made her hurried trip south to be with her husband, will be draped with black and used as a funeral car. Mrs. Pulitzer and her son Herbert, who were with Mr. Pulitzer at the time of his death, will accompany the body.

No definite arrangements for the funeral have been made, but the interment will be at Woodlawn cemetery, the latter part of the week.

A flood of telegrams, the letters and cablegrams of condolence is still pouring in on the Pulitzer family here. They come from men in every walk of life, who have known and admired the celebrated journalist. Every newspaper in New York today pays the highest tribute to the personal worth and ability of the dead publisher.

FOLA LA FOLLETTE WEDS A WRITER

Daughter of Wisconsin Senator Becomes Bride of George Middleton of New York

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The marriage of Miss Fola La Follette, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Robert M. La Follette, and George Middleton of New York, took place at noon yesterday in the La Follette home on Wyoming avenue.

The bride wore a becoming suit of dark blue cloth, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was Miss Mary La Follette, sister of the bride, who wore a frock of white chiffon and a white picture hat trimmed with pink roses. The bridegroom's best man was Paul Kesler, the New York dramatist.

Rev. U. G. B. Pierce, pastor of All Souls' Unitarian church, officiated. Only the families of the bride couple and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, which was followed by an informal wedding breakfast. There were no invitations to the wedding and there will be no announcement cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Middleton left Washington this evening for New York, where they will make their home. The bride will not abandon her stage career.

SHOOTS WHOLE FAMILY

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Carroll James is in a serious condition today as a result of an attempt upon her life, made by her husband, a former Baltimore and Ohio railroad conductor at Pennsboro. James also shot and killed his father-in-law, William Pritchard, 55; wounded Mrs. Pritchard, his mother-in-law, then committed suicide.

LEHNHARD BOY DEAD

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lehnhard, 623 La Crosse street, mourn the loss of their little son who died on Sunday morning. The funeral was held this morning at 9:30, and burial took place in Oak Grove cemetery. Mrs. Theodore Mannstedt was in charge.

CHARITIES MEETING

The annual meeting of the Humane society and Associated Charities will be held in the council chamber at the city hall tonight. At this meeting, which is the most important meeting of the year, officers for the year will be elected and the reports of the secretary, treasurer and humane officer will be submitted. All who are interested in charitable work of any kind are urged to attend the meeting as several methods of charitable work which will bring the best results in La Crosse will be discussed. Special arrangements have been made by the committee to make the meeting a success and all are invited to co-operate with the society in their work.

TWO RACINE MEET SHOT

RACINE, Wis., Oct. 30.—Racine had two hunting accidents Sunday. Ernest Wurtzberger, a mechanic, is perhaps crippled for life, as he had both feet perforated with buckshot while hunting ducks with a friend in Somers, south of the county line, as Patrick Mealey, a prominent farmer in the town of Dover, had his leg peppered with birdshot while hunting and may lose the sight of the left eye.

SPARTARANGE NOT TO BE DISTURBED

Transfer of Snelling Battery Will Not Affect Nearby Reservation, Says Wood

BRIGADE POST AT THE FORT

War Department Plans Sending Regiment of Infantry to Northern Fort, Says Chief

The war department has absolutely no intention of abandoning the range near Sparta neither has it any intention of reducing the size of the garrison at Fort Snelling, according to word received today by Congressman John J. Esch from General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, at Washington, D. C.

According to Gen. Wood it is the policy of the war department to place the mounted service at posts where they can be given the most outdoor work. The transfer of the battery is also part of a plan to place more infantry at northern forts and another regiment of infantry may be sent there. If the latter move is made the number of men at the garrison will be greatly increased, and Fort Snelling will boast itself as a brigade post for infantry.

Gen. Wood comments that "the present organization of our garrison is not such as to tend to the best results," and that "the war department is especially anxious to rearrange its garrisons as to have the units properly organized for the best work."

The letter of Gen. Wood to Mr. Esch follows:

"War Department, Office of the Chief of Staff,

"Washington, Oct. 27, 1911.

"Hon. John J. Esch, M. C.,

"La Crosse, Wisconsin.

"Dear Mr. Esch:

"Your letter of October 25, 1911, just received. There is no intention whatever of giving up the range near Sparta, nor is there any present intention of reducing the size of the garrison at Fort Snelling. It is the general policy of the war department to place our mounted service in a section of the country where we can give them outdoor work throughout the year, and to garrison to a larger extent than at present the northern posts by infantry. I have been looking into the question of the possibility of stationing another regiment of infantry at Fort Snelling, thereby making this a brigade post for infantry. We are assembling, gradually, a considerable amount of field artillery at Fort Sill, in order to give this arm a proper opportunity for instruction. The present organization of our garrison is not such as to tend to the best results. We have practically no tactically organized commands. The war department is especially anxious to so rearrange its garrisons as to have the units properly organized for the best work."

"I quite agree with you as to the necessity of increasing the amount of contact which we have with the militia, and every effort is being made to this end.

"I have turned your letter over to the field artillery section of the general staff, where it will be given the most careful consideration.

"Thanking you for the suggestions contained in your letter, I am,

"Very sincerely yours,

"LEONARD WOOD."

U. S. COURT TAKES UP TOBACCO TRUST CASE

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—United States circuit court, which was referred by the United States supreme court the task of passing upon the reorganization plans proposed by the American Tobacco company, today began that work.

Despite the widespread interest in the fight being made by independent holders and attorneys representing the independents and other outside interests will be heard. The American Tobacco company then will be given an opportunity to announce the objections of the various opposing interests.

ITALIAN TROOPS PENNED IN CITY

Turks Drive Invaders Into Tripoli After Desperate Battle in the Interior

HUNDREDS REPORTED DEAD

Reverse May Lead to Revolution in Italy; Army in Danger of Annihilation

LONDON, Oct. 30.—That the Italians have suffered a heavy reverse in Tripoli and that the army of occupation there is in grave danger, is indicated by messages today at every important capital in Europe.

Official denial—such denials frequently being the first announcements of what is really the truth—is even issued in Rome of a report that the Turkish troops have occupied the city of Tripoli after a terrific battle in which "thousands on both sides" were killed.

Without claiming the recapture of the city, Constantinople accounts assert that the combined Turkish and Arab forces drove the Italian troops back from their advanced possessions in Tripoli, where they are now in a precarious position.

More significant than all, there comes from the Italians themselves at Tripoli, by way of Rome, an admission that the North African situation has suddenly become more critical, and that an urgent call for reinforcements has been granted.

Grave danger for the Italian government is seen here in the news of a disaster in North Africa. News of it may be suppressed in Italy for a time, but in the end it is sure to leak out. The anti-militarists have been waiting for just such an opportunity for a demonstration, and in the present state of Italian public opinion, an outbreak of the kind cannot fail, it is believed here, to threaten an actual revolution.

Penned in City

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 30.—In a desperate attack upon the Italian cordon surrounding Tripoli Saturday, the Turks drove the former into the city in disorder, according to a dispatch to the newspaper Sabah today. The message said 300 Italians were killed and 700 wounded. They are said to be penned in the city now, and in imminent danger of annihilation.

RED HAT GIVEN PRELATES OF U.S.

Falconio, Farley and O'Connell Appointed Cardinals by the Pope

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Formal confirmation of the appointment of Papal Delegate Falconio, Archbishop Farley of New York, and Archbishop O'Connell of Boston, to be cardinals, was received here today from Rome and made public at the papal delegation.

A statement was issued at the legation as follows:

"The papal delegate has received official notice by this morning's mail that pope has selected him as well as the archbishops in New York and Boston to be cardinals.

"The apostolic delegate will leave Washington about November 10, in order to be present at the consistory which will take place on November 27. Monsignor Ceretti, at present auditor of the legation, will be charged with affairs until a new delegate is appointed."

The official document was signed by his eminence, Cardinal Merry del Val.

BOARD OF TRADE DIRECTORS MEET

A meeting of the directors of the board of trade has been called for tomorrow afternoon at 4:30, and the session, which will be held at the La Crosse club, will be an important one.

In addition to these questions the committees on railroads, transportation, conventions, programs and roads and bridges will report, the program committee reporting on the block dinner and what shall be the future. A few of the committees are also due to report. Several communications regarding the month will be received.

CITY ENGINEER DENOUNCES TEST AS INADEQUATE

NO FUROR AT THE CAPITAL

Commissioner Roemer Says Order to Install New Plant Still Stays Despite Bradish

SECRET MEETING IS CALLED

Mahoney Hurries Committeemen Together and Action May Be Taken on Report Today

- Call Special Meeting
- A special meeting of the special committee is being held in the city hall this afternoon and the report of Bradish is being taken up. What action the committee will recommend to the council had not been decided at a late hour this afternoon.
- The meeting of the water committee was called secretly by Alderman Paul W. Mahoney, the chairman, and all aldermen were invited to attend. This afternoon it was impossible to get any suggestion as to the possible action on the report of the city engineer.
- "We are in a discussion here and are not half through," was the word given out by Mayor Denger at 3 o'clock.

John H. Roemer of the railroad rate commission, was not inclined to pay much attention to Bradish's attack on Slichter's report and the order of the rate commission.

According to Mr. Roemer, who was interviewed at Madison over the long distance telephone, the alleged inadequacy of Slichter's investigation was taken up with the rate commission by Mr. Bradish some time ago. A copy of his letter was given to some of the expert engineers who have taken part in the investigations and tests here, but these experts insisted that their tests and investigations were thorough and adequate.

"The state board of health opposes filtration plans where the system is not absolutely necessary," said Mr. Roemer, "and in La Crosse case it would be foolhardy to install one when you have an unlimited supply of pure water near at hand."

Mr. Roemer said that at any rate the order of the commission to install a well system must be complied with by the city of La Crosse in the eighteen months allowed by the commission.

Protesting most vigorously against the adoption of a well system as a source of water supply for the city of La Crosse and charging that the report of Prof. Charles S. Slichter upon which the rate commission based its order to the city, to install the system, was based upon an inadequate investigation which consisted only of a view of the location of the wells and the surrounding country from the cushioned seat of an automobile, City Engineer George P. Bradish today as a member ex-officio of the special water committee filed a report with that committee.

The city engineer charges that Slichter's comparison of the marsh waters with the waters from a famous and noted spring is a joke. He also objects to that part of Slichter's report where it states that filtering plants are not practicable or safe except in the very largest cities.

In substantiation of his argument that the tests were inadequate he claims analyses were of water taken from two wells, neither of which was worked for a length of time exceeding ten hours. The city engineer also charges that the "Talweg" mentioned in Slichter's report and mentioned in the report of the committee, is not of the utmost importance and necessary to the quality of the water which they based their recommendation upon.

Mr. Bradish reviews the sinking and testing of the wells under the supervision of the state expert, claiming that only two or three of them were tested, and that ten hours was the interval for which it was pumped.

Why is the soda cracker to-day such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

To-day there is a soda cracker which is the recognized staple — Uneeda Biscuit.

Uneeda Biscuit are the most nutritious food made from flour and should be eaten every day by every member of the family from the youngest to the oldest.

Uneeda Biscuit—soda crackers better than any ever made before—made in the greatest bakeries in the world—baked to perfection—packed to perfection—kept to perfection—until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package.

DRYS IN FIELD WITH MAGAZINE

Wisconsin Prohibitionists After Votes with Printer's Ink; Will Make Whirlwind Fight

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The prohibition party in Wisconsin is on the warpath in the coming campaign, and one of its enterprises will be the publication of a state paper, the first issue of which will appear sometime this week. It will be called the Partizan and will be published in this city under the editorship of State Chairman J. B. Smith. William C. Dean of Beloit, will be field manager and Alfred B. Taynton of Madison, office manager. The general style of the paper will be similar to La Follette's.

While primarily a state paper, it will be national in character, according to Mr. Smith. The Wisconsin prohibitionists have been the most pronounced in adhering to the middle-of-the-road policy. "Wasting no time," in the words of Chairman Smith, "on compromise, option or popular vote measures that have proved dismal failures." The paper will be the organ for emphasizing the need of supporting party leaders and policy. Its publishers aim to make the paper fill the place made vacant by the recent suspension of The National Prohibitionist of Chicago.

The state central committee has decided to hold its state convention in Madison on Feb. 22, 1912. One thousand delegates are expected, said Chairman Smith today.

"The platform to be adopted," he said, "will probably be more radical and clear-cut than any ever put out by the party. No half-way measures like county option will have any show; they will be decidedly negative, you may be sure of that. We will set our aim at not less than 25,000 votes, which will be a gain of about 50 per cent. The delegates will plan the nomination of local tickets as well as state. All over the state there is a growing interest in this movement, and it may be accounted for largely because we are cutting loose from all attempts to compromise the issue. We are emphasizing the party lines against the non-partisan as the only way to win victories."

Automobile campaigning will be planned later. The committee is figuring on a large number of stump speakers and house-to-house workers, and quantities of literature are being mailed from the state headquarters to all voters in the state.

CONSUMPTIVES NEED NOT BE STUFFED

Many traditions with regard to the feeding of tuberculosis patients and with regard to food in general, are given severe blows in a series of articles published in the October number of the Journal of Outdoor Life, the official organ of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

Dr. John R. Murlin of New York, assistant professor of physiology at the Cornell university medical college, holds in an article entitled "The Dynamic Principles of Nutrition," that a consumptive will gain weight and do well on three pints of whole milk, eight ounces of cream, five ounces of milk sugar, six eggs and two slices of buttered toast, as a ration for each 24 hours. The entire diet with the exception of the bread and butter could be prepared in advance and served for a cost of about 50 cents for the day. Miss Cecelia Flick of the Henry Phillips Institute of Philadelphia, also offers some sample diets which the ordinary family can prepare for even less than 50 cents a day.

Dr. David R. Lyman of Wallingford, Conn., and Dr. and Paul B. Johnson of Washington, D. C., both agree that the ordinary person eats too much, and that the old notions about stuffing a tuberculosis patient at all times and seasons have been proven false. Dr. Lyman holds that eggs are not a necessary article of the consumptive's diet, and that a tuberculosis patient should eat anything that agrees with him that is nourishing. He thinks that a tuberculosis patient should eat only a little more than a person in ordinary good health.

Dr. Murlin compares the food we eat to the fuel used in furnishing steam and power for an engine. In selecting our food he says that we should eat enough to furnish energy for the day's work, but that much more than this is not needed. He holds that the appetite is not a necessity for good digestion. "There is no fallacy of nutrition," he says, "greater than that which supposes that a food cannot be digested and utilized without appetite." Most of the food we eat, fully four-fifths, goes to supply energy for our every day tasks while less than one-fifth goes to supply building material.

DIVORCE GRANTED TO GEORGE OTT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30.—George Ott was granted a divorce from Mrs. Anna Ott on a counterclaim of misconduct. The decree was issued yesterday by Judge Turner in circuit court, who had the case under advisement. Mr. Ott was also given the custody of the four children, ranging in age from 8 to 15 years. The oldest boy, Roy, will remain with his father. The three younger children will be sent to an orphanage which their father may be provided that the place be approved by the court. The question of custody was formerly Miss Anna Ott's, La Crosse, Wis.

CLAPP DEFENDS RECALL OF JUDGES

Minnesota Senator Calls La Follette "Knight Errant of Righteousness" in Madison Speech

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 30.—The friends of special privilege were held up by Senator Moses Clapp of Minnesota as chief among the enemies of the recall of judges, in a speech at the University of Wisconsin gymnasium last night. Senator Clapp spoke on "Real Democracy" at the national conference on civic development.

After praising Senator La Follette as the "knight errant of righteousness," the Minnesota senator launched into a defense of the recall as applied to the judiciary.

"It is just as fair and necessary for the people to discharge an incompetent and unworthy judge as it is for a grocer to discharge an incompetent clerk," he said. "If you know enough to vote for a man before he has been tried, you ought to know enough to vote upon him after he has been tried."

Declaring that the general welfare is fighting against special privilege, Senator Clapp said the country suffers from a system which permits the heads of the rubber trust to dictate tariff legislation to increase its dividends, and a steel magnate to put away a good wife without cause. Had the people of Pennsylvania the referendum, he contended, they would long ago have made it impossible for divorce to obtain on trivial grounds.

Just as the remedy for profanity is more religion, he said, the remedy for the foes of democracy is more democracy.

HEIRESS AND YOUTH ELOPE; ARRESTED

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 30.—Elizabeth Weeks, a young heiress of Cleveland, Ohio, is detained at police headquarters here today following a sensational elopement from her home with Gordon Taylor, a youth also from Cleveland and their subsequent marriage in Windsor, Canada. The girl's cousin followed the couple to Detroit and says he is going to take the girl back to Cleveland. The young husband has not been detained, but is hovering about the police station and vows he will accompany his bride back home.

Mrs. Taylor is said to be very wealthy. The police and principals in the affair refuse to talk.

Young Gordon is a son of the janitor of the apartments where Miss Weeks lived with her mother, a wealthy widow. The Weeks are prominent socially in Cleveland.

LONDON MARKET FIRM

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The weakness in American securities on the London market, which prevailed yesterday, was not in evidence today during the early trading. Both Steel common and preferred advanced 3/4, while other American issues were from fractions to 1 1/2 points higher.

American shares maintained their firm tone until the close. Steel common increasing the advance to 1 1/2 and the preferred to 1 3/4. The other international are fractionally higher at the windup of the day's business.

Treating The Wrong Disease

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-busy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality they are all only symptoms caused by some weakness or derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better by reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots without the use of alcohol and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the distinctly feminine organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

EVERY WOMAN ought to possess Dr. Pierce's great book, the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a magnificent thousand-page illustrated volume. It teaches mothers how to care for their children and themselves. It is the best doctor to have in the house in case of emergency. Over half a million copies were sold at $1.50 each, but one free copy in paper-covers will be sent on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only; or send 31 stamps for a handsome cloth-bound copy. Address the publishers, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW COURTHOUSE BURNS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 30.—The new county courthouse at Des Arc, Prairie county, burned with a loss of $65,000. All the county records, including the tax books for the current year, were destroyed. When the fire was extinguished the door of the vault was found open, and it is believed that the blaze was started by robbers who thought the vault contained valuable papers, which it did not.

Even on a day an inexperienced man who ventures into the haunts of high finance can become well soaked.

A FAIR OFFER

Your Money Back if You're Not Satisfied

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. That's a mighty broad statement, but we mean every word of it. Could anything be more fair for you?

A most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. Their active principle is a recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, yet gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. They do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping, or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember, you can get them in La Crosse only at our store. 12 tablets 10 cents; 26 tablets 25 cents; 80 tablets 50 cents. Sold only at our store.—The Rexall Store. O. T. Erhart.

LORIMER'S COUNSEL SCORES COMMITTEE

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—A bitter wrangle between Attorney Haney, counsel for Lorimer, and Attorney Marble, representing the committee enlivened Saturday's hearing by the senatorial investigating committee. Haney assailed the committee for "granting sanctuary" in the methods used by its counsel in uncovering evidence in the Lorimer case. He was rebuked by the committee for his outburst. Haney's cross-examination developed that Marble had been down at Centralia Friday, developing testimony with Tanner. He protested vigorously against this line of investigation and protested against "star chamber" methods. The committee ruled in favor of Marble.

COMPLIMENTS LOCAL MEAT INSPECTOR

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 30.—State Veterinarian A. H. Hartwig held a conference this week with the government inspectors in charge of the interstate shipment of cattle at Wisconsin, Minn., and La Crosse, Wis. He said he found the inspectors rigid in their administration of the laws barring shipments of diseased cattle from one state to another. He praised the work of the Minnesota veterinary board, which he said is dealing impartially with livestock owners in enforcing the livestock sanitation laws of the state. After a visit to the board at St. Paul this week, he said that Minnesota is in a Wisconsin in this respect, the fact that the Minnesota barred all cattle from Illinois for slaughtering purposes.

The PRODIGAL JUDGE

The Famous Novel by
VAUGHAN KESTER

Copyright, 1911, The Bobbs-Merrill Company

"Well, what the devil do you want of me, anyhow?" demanded the planter.

"How's your sister, Tom?" inquired Murrell.

"I reckon she's the way you'd expect her to be." Ware dropped his voice to a whisper.

"John, you'll ruin yourself with your damned crazy infatuation!" It was Fentress who spoke.

"No, I won't, Colonel, but I'm not going to discuss that. All I want is for Tom to go to Memphis and stay there for a couple of days.

When he comes back Belle Plain and its niggers will be as good as his. I am going to take the girl away from there tonight. How soon can you get away from here, Tom?" he asked abruptly.

"By God, I can't go too soon!" he cried, staggering to his feet. He gave Fentress a hopeless beaten look.

"You're my witness that first and last I've no part in this!"

The colonel shrugged his shoulders. Murrell reached out a hand and rested it on Ware's arm.

"Keep your wits, Tom, and within a week people will have forgotten all about Norton and your sister. I am going to give them something else to worry over."

Ware went from the cabin.

"Look here, how about the boy—are you ready for him if I can get my hands on him? I'll send him either up or down the river and place him in safe keeping where you can get him at any time you want."

"This must be done without violence, John!" stipulated Fentress.

"Certainly, I understand. Which shall it be—up or down river?"

"Could you take care of him for me below, at Natchez?" inquired Fentress.

"As well there as anywhere."

"Good!" said Fentress, and took his leave.

Three-quarters of an hour slipped by, then, piercing the silence, Murrell heard a shrill whistle; it was twice repeated; he saw Bess go down to the landing again. A half hour elapsed and a man issued from the scattering growth of bushes that screened the shore. The new-comer crossed the clearing and entered the cabin. He was a young fellow of twenty-four or five, whose bronzed face wore a reckless expression.

"Well, Captain, what's doing?" he asked.

"If anything's to be done, now is the time, Hues. What have you to report?"

"Well, I've seen the council of each Clan division. They are ripe to start this thing off."

Murrell gave him a moment of moody regard.

"Twice already I've named the day and hour, but now I'm going to put it through!" He set his teeth and thrust out his jaw.

"Captain, you're the greatest fellow in America! Inside of a week men who have never been within five hundred miles of you will be asking of each other who John Murrell is!"

Murrell had expected to part with Hues then and there and for all time, but Hues possessed qualities which might still be of use.

"Hues, you must start back across Tennessee. Make it Sunday at midnight—that's three days off." Unconsciously his voice sank to a whisper.

"Sunday at midnight," repeated Hues slowly.

"When you have passed the word into middle Tennessee, turn south and make the best of your way to New Orleans. Don't stop for anything—push through as fast as you can. You'll find me there. I've a notion you and I will quit the country together."

"Quit the country? Why, Captain, who's talking of quitting the country?"

"You speak as though you were fool enough to think the niggers would accomplish something!" said Murrell coolly. "There will be confusion at first, but there are enough white men in the southwest to handle a heap better organized insurrection than we'll be able to set going. Our fellows will have to use their heads as well as their hands or they are likely to help the nigger swallow his medicine. I look for nothing else than considerable of a shakeup along the Mississippi—what with lynchers and regulators a man will have to show a clean bill of health to be allowed to live, no matter what his color—just being white won't help him any!"

"No, you're right, it won't!" and Hues gave way to easy laughter.

"When you've done your work you strike south as I tell you and join me. I'm going to keep New Orleans for myself—it's my ambition to destroy the city Old Hickory saved!"

"And then it's change your name and strike out for Texas with what you've picked up!"

"No, it isn't! I'll have my choice of men—a river full of ships. Look here, there's South America, or some of those islands in the gulf with a black-and-tan population and a few white mongrels holding on to civilization by their eye-teeth; what's to hinder our setting up shop for ourselves? Two or three hundred Americans could walk off with an island like Hayti, for instance—and it's black with niggers. What we'd done here, would be just so much capital down there. We'd make it a stamping-ground for the Clan! In the next two years we could bring in a couple of thousand Americans and then we'd be ready to take over their government, whether they liked it or not, and run it at a profit. We'd put the niggers back in slavery where they belong, and set them at work raising sugar and tobacco for their new bosses. Man, it's the richest land in the world, I tell you—and the mountains are full of gold!"

Hues had kindled with a ready enthusiasm while Murrell was speaking.

"That sounds right, Captain—we'd have a country and a flag of our own—and I look at those free niggers as just so much boot!"

"I shall take only picket men with me—I can't give ship room to any other—but I want you. You'll join me in New Orleans?" said Murrell.

"When do you start south?" asked Hues quickly.

"Inside of two days. I've got some private business to settle before I leave. I'll hang round here until that's attended to."

Doing the President

President Taft, while on one of his trips to the west, made a stop at a small town where he spoke a few minutes and received the usual bushel or two of flowers from the admiring young ladies. Just as the special was pulling out of the station a barefoot boy, carrying a bouquet, came running and squirming through the crowd. Mr. Taft saw him.

"I can't run away from the little fellow like this," he said pulling the bell-rope and bringing the train to a stop.

The youngster came up breathlessly and delivered the roses. The president smiled and handed him a dollar.

"Tom," said he to the porter, after the train had resumed its way, "it seems to me those flowers are rather wilted. The boy must have had a hard time getting through the crowd."

"They ought to be wilted," answered Tom, with a grin. "That there bouquet has been on this train for three days, and I just threw it out as we came into that town back there."—Chicago Examiner.

"You are not as confident about your timepiece," said Korb, "as my friend, Bishop Chatard of Indianapolis and Bishop O'Donabue of Louisville, when they compared watches once upon a time. It is just three minutes to 9," said Bishop Chatard.

"It is exactly four minutes and a half to 9," retorted Bishop O'Donabue.

"I know the exact time," exclaimed Bishop Chatard, "for my watch is one in which I have the utmost faith."

"Ah, bishop," replied the prelate from Louisville, "we must not hope to succeed through faith alone. I have not only faith in my watch, but I know of its good works."

Stung Again

Alexander M. Dockery, former governor of Missouri, was at one time a member of the house of representatives, and while filling the job, made the acquaintance of a needy young man who formed the habit of borrowing too much money. Dockery got tired of being "touched" every few days and decided to put a stop to it.

"Say Dockery," came the usual request, "can you lend me twenty?"

Dockery looked grieved and cast down, felt in all of his pockets and nearly succeeded in squeezing out a tear from his left eye.

"I haven't got a cent," he said in sepulchral tone.

At that moment he spied a page of the paper and he turned it over and found a five-dollar bill.

"Here you are," he said, handing it to the young man, "and I hope it will do you good."

The young man took the bill and looked at it for a moment, then he said: "Thank you, Mr. Dockery, but I don't want it. I want you to lend me twenty dollars."

Dockery looked at him for a moment, then he said: "I haven't got a cent, but I'll lend you twenty dollars."

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

The Example
Ma dressed me up the other day,
And took me to a matinee;
It ended up about this way:
A man he kissed a lady.

One time I seen another show—
I guess it was a week ago—
And all the folks whispered "Oh!"
When some man kissed a lady.

My daddy took me out to see
The "Deadwood Trail"—it tickled me,
Because they shot, and then, oh gee!
A man, he kissed a lady.

It seems that all the shows that's out
Has thrillers hid somewhere about.
But when the cowboys cease to shout
A man, he'll kiss a lady.

When I grow up I think I know
Just what to do. I'll act! Ho, ho!
And while the others shoot and blow
I'll up and kiss a lady.

CONDUCTOR MEETS DEATH HUNTING

Austin Denure, Portage, Receives Shotgun Charge Full in the Face at Endeavor, Wis.

COMPANION IS PROSTRATE

No Blame Attached to Jack Curwin Who Held Gun when Fatal Charge Was Fired

Rising suddenly just as Jack Curwin, his companion, pulled the trigger for a shot at a flock of ducks behind him, Austin Denure, aged 49, a conductor on the east end of the La Crosse division of the Milwaukee road, received the full charge of the gun in the face just below the right eye. He fell to the bottom of the boat dead. Denure and Curwin both live at Portage. Curwin is a fireman on the road.

The accidental tragedy occurred Sunday morning near Endeavor, Wis., where the two had gone after ducks. The boat was shoved into the bank, and Denure was sitting in the rear end when a flock of ducks flew over behind him. Curwin raised his gun and just as he pulled the trigger, Denure stood up to get a shot at the ducks himself.

Curwin rowed immediately to the camp, and medical aid was summoned, but Denure was already dead. The body was taken to the victim's home yesterday evening. Curwin is said to be prostrated by the tragic death of his friend.

Denure is well known to local Milwaukee trainmen, having been one of the most popular men on the east end of the division. His run was between Milwaukee and Portage.

40-HOUR DEVOTION AT ST. JAMES CHURCH

Starting with high mass at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, a period of forty hours of devotion will begin at the St. James Catholic church on Caledonia street. The devotions will be under the auspices of the new missionary band which has been formed in the diocese for the purpose of promoting the observance of devotions. The services connected with the devotions will be conducted by Rev. F. A. Byrne and Rev. E. D. Hayden.

As a prelude to the devotions a class of twenty-five little folks will receive their first communion Wednesday, which is also All Saints Day. Services in the devotional exercises will continue Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, sermons being delivered every morning at 7:45.

JOHN ROGGENSACK DEAD AT HOSPITAL

North Side Man Fails to Survive Operation and Succumbs at 5:45 Sunday Morning

After submitting to an operation at the Lutheran hospital Friday, John Henry Roggensack, 25, 2010 George street, a brother of P. E. Roggensack, the blacksmith, failed to recover from the shock of the operation, and died at 5:45 yesterday morning. He underwent a previous operation two months ago.

Mr. Roggensack was born in Lansing, Iowa, and has been a resident of North La Crosse for about four years. He has been ill for four months. He never fully recuperated from the first operation, and lacked strength to resist the shock when the second became imperative.

He is survived by his mother, three brothers, and two sisters, P. E. Roggensack, La Crosse; J. T. Roggensack, Rochester, Minn., and Carl, Lansing. The sisters are Emma, Lansing, and Martha, La Crosse.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, with Rev. A. V. Ingham officiating. The body will be sent to Lansing for burial.

Mrs. Greenman Dead
Mrs. Samantha M. Greenman, aged 72, died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of her son, John Greenman, 208 Caledonia street, after an illness of four years, due to gall stones.

Mrs. Greenman was not considered seriously ill until the last four days, when her condition rapidly became worse, and her constitution, weakened by her advanced age, was unable to withstand the inroads of the disease.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at Angelo, near Sparta, where the body will be sent tomorrow morning.

U. S. WARSHIPS POKE NOSES INTO HUDSON

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—With a roaring of small guns, more warships poked their noses up into the Hudson Saturday and came to anchor with the ships already there, preparing for the greatest mobilization of warships ever held in American waters.

CHURCH CONFERENCE OPENS THIS EVENING

Rev. A. Damerow, Decorah, Iowa, will open the annual convention of the pastors of the Galena district of the German M. E. church at the second church, corner Berlin and Clinton streets this evening with a sermon suitable to the occasion. The meetings will continue until Wednesday.

Services will be held every day of the convention, and the pastors will hold discussions concerning the various phases of the church work. Tomorrow will probably be devoted to committee work. Each evening will be devoted to preaching services. Twenty pastors have gathered for the convention.

MRS. STANNARD IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

ONTONAGON, Mich., Oct. 30.—"Mrs. Laura Stannard is not guilty." This was the verdict of the jury which heard the testimony against Mrs. Stannard, a society woman of this city, charged with murdering her husband by putting strychnine in his coffee.

The jury was out two hours. The verdict did not come as a surprise to those who have followed the sensational trial. It was conceded there was slight chance of Mrs. Stannard's being convicted despite the testimony introduced by the state.

The Stannard murder was one of the most sensational crimes in Michigan criminal annals. Stannard, who came of one of the best families in the state, died suddenly a few months ago. He evidently succumbed to the effects of some potent drug and within an hour after he had eaten breakfast. The fact that Mrs. Stannard had prepared the breakfast coffee with her own hands first pointed the finger of suspicion at her, and she was arrested.

SURE TO BREAK A SEVERE COLD

Will overcome all distress from a bad cold or the Grippe in just a few hours

The most severe cold will be broken, and all gripe misery ended after taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

You will distinctly feel all the disagreeable symptoms leaving after the very first dose.

The most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism pains and other distress vanishes.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or gripe.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

W. B. U. DEFEATED BY WINONA SCHOOL

Drop Kick by Winona Quarter Decides Game between Two Business Schools

The W. B. U. football team went down to defeat at the hands of the Winona Business college on the latter's grounds Saturday afternoon by a score of 5 to 8. Both teams played a fast game.

The Game

W. B. U. kicked to Winona and held them for downs. A series of long end runs, cross bucks and forward passes took the ball to Winona's 35 yard line. Winona captured the ball on a forward pass and punted. W. B. U. fumbled the punt and the Winona left end secured the ball. The referee gave Winona the ball and penalized the W. B. U. 15 yards, which brought the ball to the W. B. U. seven yard line. On the third down Winona carried the ball over. Goal was not kicked.

With three minutes to play, Winona kicked to W. B. U., who again marched up the field, this time for a touchdown. Collins carrying the ball 35 yards on a wide end run and was tackled on the goal line. No goal was kicked.

The third quarter was a repetition of the second quarter, neither side scoring. Winona blocked the W. B. U. plays repeatedly, the whole Winona team being after the ball.

In the third quarter Winona tried to drop a kick from the 25 yard line—this counted. W. B. U. tried a similar kick, which did not cross the goal posts.

Winona put the ball in play on her own 25 yard scrimmage line and, being held, punted. W. B. U. played an inside kick which went 25 yards. The ball was given to Winona. Winona punted again. W. B. U. carried the ball to the Winona 45 yard line and played another inside kick. The ball fell back of the goal posts. There was but one-half minute to play and the game ended with the ball in Winona's possession on her own 20 yard line.

The W. B. U. scored one touchdown. Winona scored a field goal, a touchdown and a drop kick.

FROLIC AT THE Y. W. C. A.

The usual Saturday night Frolic in the gym at the Y. W. C. A. was an affair of unusual interest. There was an interesting program given, the first part of the evening consisting of music, both instrumental and vocal, at which a number of prominent and world renowned celebrities took an active part. Those present came arrayed in various sorts of gowns, several of them being of Parisian importation. A mock wedding was celebrated, the bride being Miss Amanda Clements; the groom, Miss Theodora Bittner; the maid of honor, Miss Charlotte Bennett; best man, Miss Ida Hill; flower girl, Miss Lenora Gauthier; and ring bearer, Miss Bertha Hoefke. Miss Marie Peterson was train bearer for the bride. Miss Dunn, as the clergyman, performed the ceremony. A grand march in which all participated, gave an opportunity to display the elegant toilets.

Mme. Shuman-Heink, nee Miss Bertha Hoefke, sang several selections in a most entrancing manner. Paderewski just made the piano talk. It was truly a night of frolic and jollity.

There will be another affair at the association Halloween night, which, it is said, will be equally as entertaining.

SUPPER PARTY

Saturday evening Mrs. Levi Withee was guest of honor at a pleasant little supper given by Mrs. Frank Davis. The evening was spent in playing cards.

HALLOWEEN PARTY AT W. B. U.

The Ghost will walk tonight at the Wisconsin Business University hall instead of tomorrow. The committee in charge has set tonight for the annual Halloween party and dance, and the decoration committee is spending the day in converting the hall into a freakish temple. The chills start at eight o'clock and last for just one hour when the grand march will open the dancing end of the program. Refreshments will be served at 11 o'clock.

COUNTRY CLUB

The last affair of the season at the Country club was held Saturday night, there being a pancake supper for the men. About thirty-five were present. The pancakes, supplemented by delicious sausage and other delicacies of the season were highly enjoyed by the guests.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Paul of Watertown, Fla., were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. Paul's mother, Mrs. John Paul.

Mrs. Frank Winter has returned from Madison, where she spent a few days following her attendance at the convention of the Woman's Federated Clubs at Green Bay, Wis.

Mrs. Levi Withee will leave tonight for Watertown, Fla., where she will spend the winter. She will be accompanied by Miss Ferol Delamater of Onalaska.

ROCHESTER BANQUET TO BOOM LA FOLLETTE

ROCHESTER, Minn., Oct. 30.—Active steps toward the inauguration of the campaign for Senator La Follette for the presidency will open in the First district where two years ago the radicals defeated James A. Tawney for congress, and which is considered a pivotal point for the state movement. Tonight a big banquet will be held. Congressman I. L. Lenroot of Wisconsin and Senator Moses E. Clapp will be the chief speakers, with Congressman Anderson and Twin city radicals following. In the afternoon an effort will be made to form a First district progressive league, which will boost the La Follette cause in southeastern Minnesota.

LINDBERG WILL RUN

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 30.—Progressive republican friends of Congressman Lindberg, who held a conference with him in Minneapolis Saturday, announced today that he would be a candidate for governor.

They are called the B. P. O. E's. An American institution. That loves its country's honored flag and her Yankee constitution. They worship God as others do and pray with fervent will. So when they reach the Golden Gate Peter'll say, "Hello Bill!"

Don't such things look fraternal. To the optimistic eye? Is it not a word lesson. To be remembered by and by? Don't you like to see men friendly. Without a haughty chill. And face each other manly, when They say, "Hello Bill!"

Don't you know that that's a welcome. That Charity imparts. To men who are most noble. And have justice in their hearts. Can't you see a brotherly love. With Fidelity at will. As they meet each other friendly. And say, "Hello Bill!"

HELLO "BILL!"

Did you ever wonder why. When some people chance to meet. That they smile at one another. And are ready then to greet? Did you linger then to listen. And watch the welcome will. As they grasp each other's hand. And say, "Hello Bill!"

BILIOUSNESS, SALLOW SKIN, HEADACHE, SLUGGISH BOWELS—TAKE CASCARETS.

You're bilious, you have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow with dark rings under your eyes, your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember, that every disorder of the stomach, liver and intestines can be quickly cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets. A 10-cent box will keep you and the entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing occasionally. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

MILWAUKEE MEN HOLD THE STAGE

The Stephenson Committee Hopes to Conclude Hearing Today; to Prepare Report

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 30.—In the hope of concluding its hearing here today the Stephenson investigating committee rushed witnesses through their examination. The morning hearing had principally to do with the Milwaukee campaign.

The committee will now receive the affidavits of a large number of Stephenson witnesses, and whether or not there will be further hearings will depend on the character of these affidavits. After the sub-committee has received the briefs of the Stephenson attorneys it will begin preparing its report. The investigation opened here October 1.

Senator Paul Hustung of Mayville, democrat, who with Senators S. M. Marsh of Neillsville and Thomas Morris of La Crosse carried on the investigation of the senate, was given a searching examination by Chairman Heyburn, who said since Hustung was the only surviving senator the report would be considered from the standpoint of Hustung's report. The committee first ascertained the Wisconsin laws governing the state committee in its charges relative to secrecy, failure to file report, destruction of memoranda, etc., by Stephenson managers. The witness cites the various statutes violated in each charge. If Stephenson violated the law, he said, in giving money to Thomas Reynolds, a legislative candidate, in that Reynolds was not a resident of Stephenson's legislative district, and the civil service law in giving money to Game Warden Stone. Editorial stimulation by Stephenson, he said, was a violation of the bribery statute. Likewise the giving of $200 to Rev. F. Eppling.

MINE EXHIBITIONS OPEN IN PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 30.—Thousands of expert mining engineers, representatives of mine and mining interests, and spectators attended the opening of the National Mine Safety and First Aid demonstration here today. The assembly is said to be the first of its kind ever held in the world, and there is wide interest direct.

The exhibitions consist of experiments as to the cause of explosions in mines, the force and effects of explosions caused by fine coal dust, gases, blown out shot and other things, the means used by rescuers in going to the aid of miners following accidents in mines and the "first aid" administered to the men after being brought to the surface. In the explosion exhibitions, scientific instruments automatically registering the temperature and velocity of the air currents will be used and from these mining experts will obtain important data which will cause them to become more familiar with conditions surrounding mine disasters and take steps for the further protection of lives and property.

MAEBY-LEHRBACH WEDDING SUNDAY

Miss Coral Maebly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Maebly, Charles City, Iowa, and Dr. Leslie Lehrbach, this city, were married by Judge L. Kleber at the home of Miss Maebly's grandparents, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Following the wedding they left for Charles City, where they will spend a few weeks, after which they will return to this city and make their home at 816 South Fourteenth street.

GOFF BOOMED FOR JUDGE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30.—The visit of President Taft, according to current gossip, has brought the question of a successor of the late U. S. District Judge J. V. Quarles to a definite status, with the legal circles believing that Guy D. Goff, present United States district attorney, will receive the appointment. It is declared Goff's endorsements for the office are profuse including that of Senator Stephenson, who spoke personally with the president.

FUNERAL TODAY

The funeral of Frank Zenker, aged 75 years, who died at midnight on Saturday of heart disease at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Liso, 1319 South Twelfth street, was held at 1 o'clock this afternoon from the residence in Chippewa Coulee. Interment was made in Mormon Coulee.

ROBBERS WRECK TRAIN IN TEXAS

Two Killed when Engine Turns Over; Ties Chained to Track; Rails Torn Up

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 30.—A large posse left here early today to search for the gang of robbers which pulled up the spikes and removed the rails in front of the Fort Worth & Denver express at Bellevue early today, causing a wreck which resulted in the death of Engineer Cunningham and Fireman Yates, and the injury of a score of passengers.

The accident occurred early this morning just as the express rounded a curve after leaving Bellevue. Fortunately the speed of the train had been slackened to pass through the yards, otherwise it is probable that the death list would have been much larger. Engineer Cunningham saw the gap in the rails and the obstructions which had been placed a short distance further on, and tried to stop the train, but failed. The engine and tender struck the end of the track and were hurled to one side. The baggage car and first passenger car also left the rails, but did not turn over. The sleeping passengers in the other cars were shaken up.

Investigation proved that two of the rails had been removed and several railroad ties chained to the tracks, so that the wreck of the train was inevitable. A posse was immediately formed and search for the wreckers commenced.

BOY RUN DOWN BY AUTO IN STREET

Joseph Resch, aged 6 years, was struck by an automobile driven by B. E. Edwards and injured while playing in front of his home yesterday afternoon. Mr. Edwards today said he was traveling at a slow rate of speed and the child was but slightly injured, while inquiry at the home of the child brings the information that while the injuries are not serious, he will be laid up for some time.

According to Mr. Edwards the child suddenly jumped in front of the car, not seeing it, and was thrown to the ground, the car partly passing over his body before it could be brought to a stop.

STREET FAKIR ACT LEADS GOOD BILL

Charles Kenna as Itinerant Soap Peddler Scores Hit at Majestic First Half of Week

OTHER ACTS ARE ALSO CLEVER

"In the Garage Shop," "The Tamer," Belle of Jaytown and Banjo Artist Make Good

The act which concludes the exceptional Majestic bill offered the first half of this week is one that for novelty and originality has not been excelled on a local stage for months. The act is a monologue, by Charles Kenna, entitled "The Street Fakir." It is funny in the extreme, but it shows a close study of the methods of the itinerant street peddler. All the "props" used in the stunt are a barrel with a gasoline torch fastened to it, and a battered suitcase. From the suit case the fakir, after a preliminary spiel and two songs droned out in the proverbial fashion of the street hawker, draws out three shells and a pea. He tries to interest some sports in the imaginary crowd about him in bucking the game. All apparently are wise, and with a sigh he gives it up, and turns his attention to straight business. From the recesses of the suitcase he produces a package of the "medicinal wisewheimer," a marvelous powder that will do anything from polish brass to removing superfluous hair or stopping a stomachache. Without doubt the best of the monologue is the rapid fire oratory with which he lauds the "wisewheimer" to the gaping crowds which one imagines to have gathered around him. The act is so true to nature, and the singsong drone of the fakir is so well imitated, that the act proves to be a decided success. Mr. Kenna alone is worth price of admission. As a gloom chaser he is unexcelled.

"In the garage shop," an acrobatic sketch with the stage set to represent a garage, Keit and De Mont present an act that is remarkable for its cleverness and comicality. The characters are two chauffeurs, one a dutchman with but a limited knowledge of autos. Their acrobatic work is skillful, and is accompanied by a line of running talk that is really funny. In addition, the Dutchman is an eccentric dancer of ability. One of his loose-jointed dances brought down the house at every performance yesterday.

"The Tamer," a one act playlet by Mr. and Mrs. Cortis, is billed as a comedy playlet. There are parts in it which are good comedy, but the theme of the play is not one of comedy, and the acting is so near perfection, that the audience sits tense and breathless the greater part of the time that the act is on. The comedy is introduced at opportune moments, and is a desirable relief from the tension of the situations. The play deals with home life of a dissatisfied woman, who is disappointed with her husband's earning capacity, and makes a date with another man in order to have a little excitement. The short sketch is full of good wholesome truths, and the dramatic work is of a quality that surprises on the vaudeville stage. It ends happily, of course, with the wife repentant and the husband forgiving.

Lillie Sutherland is the big hit of the "Belle of Jaytown" act. She wears a comedy makeup that is worth a good hearty laugh in itself, and her dancing and singing are good. She throws herself into her stunts with a zest that is catching and has the audience with her from her first appearance. She has a jerky eccentric dance that is unique and makes a big hit. The act is a singing and dancing dialogue, and the other partner of the duo, Jack Curtis, also won a home for himself with Majestic patrons yesterday. He is as big as his partner is little, and they both are "there."

The first act on the bill is a musical novelty, introducing George Smedley with mandolins, guitars and banjos. He makes the banjos carry on a conversation in a surprising imitation of the human voice, plays eight instruments at the same time, and makes two banjos imitate distant church chimes playing favorite old melodies in a way new to La Crosse. His music is accompanied by a humorous explanatory monologue that gets the house.

SOCIETY TO GIVE BIG RUMMAGE SALE

A rummage sale will be held under the auspices of the First Division of the Ladies' society of the First Presbyterian church at the Second Ward school house Friday, November 3rd. The funds that are derived from the sale of goods will be used to defray the expenses of the remodeling of the First Presbyterian church. Members of the society announced that the sale will be one of the best ever given by the society and that every conceivable saleable article will be on exhibition and at rock bottom bargain prices.

Mustard's Quick Relief Without the Blister!

You remember the good 'old-fashioned mustard plaster.

Your mother and your grandmother used to apply it whenever you had a cold, an ache or a pain.

It burned like sixty, but it surely did the work.

Here is the old family remedy, greatly improved by science and put in Twentieth Century form—

THE QUICK AND BLESSED RELIEF WITHOUT THE BLISTER OF THE MUSTARD, OR THE BOTHER AND MESSINESS OF THE PLASTER.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. For MUSTEROLE, the oil of the highest grade of mustard is refined until it is as pure as human skill can make it.

You simply rub it on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone!

Not a blister is left even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

You don't have to spread MUSTEROLE on a cloth. Just apply it with the finger tips.

You don't have to bind on a cloth. MUSTEROLE is so penetrating that it goes right through the pores at once.

And there is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

MUSTEROLE is for sale by leading druggists everywhere. Accept no substitute.

Many of these display the MUSTEROLE sign (shown below) in their windows.

MUSTEROLE comes in jars of two sizes, 25c and 50c.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c and we will send you a jar postage prepaid.

THE MUSTEROLE COMPANY, Cleveland, Ohio

My sister was suffering from Neuralgia and I from Rheumatism; MUSTEROLE relieved us completely.
C. F. McClintock,
Pittsburg, Pa.

My four-year-old son had severe Bronchitis. I found MUSTEROLE the best thing I ever used.

CITY ENGINEER DENOUNCES TEST AS INADEQUATE

and that a sample was then taken for analysis. These tests, which he denounces as inadequate, in connection with the automobile ride through the country, the analysis of the water and the opinion of local well experts, constitutes the data for the report of the railroad commission, upon which they based their recommendation.

Bradish in his report says the absolutely necessary objects for testing ground waters are as follows:

First—The uncertainty, which always exists, as to the quantity of the water available.

Second—The conditions favorable to the growth of organisms in the water.

Third—The possibility of the presence of iron.

Fourth—The possible deterioration of the water from long continued use.

The city engineer asks how many of the above mentioned objects for testing ground water have been fully complied with, or how many of them have been even started.

He maintains that objects Nos. 1, 2 and 3 have been really started, but are still far from being completed, while the fourth object has not even been entered into. The city engineer says that all the reports up-to-date claim an abundant supply of water, but that he fails to see any assurance that it will continue.

"Beautifully spun theories" and "absolute uncertainties" furnish the foundation for the conclusions as to the quantity and quality of the water.

Mr. Bradish does not alone take issue with the rate commission expert, but also intimates that Maltby's report, which was a confirmation of Slichter's findings, was based on inadequate tests.

The city engineer sarcastically comments that "the city seems to be unable to move rapidly enough as to place $200,000 or $250,000 in a location of which they have not the slightest assurance that the water will not be a miserable failure in a very short time."

The city engineer says that he is charitable enough to believe that it is the per cent of two or three of the chemical ingredients contained in the La Crosse water that compare favorably with the spring water, and he repeats that comparison of the well water with White Rock is a joke because it has been readily shown within the last year that there is a pollution which has caused considerable anxiety.

As a test for future pollution of the well supply Bradish suggests that a large well be put down, and after it has been tested for quality and quantity and a possible future deterioration that a very simple and inexpensive test be made by dissolving a bushel or two of salt on the surface of the ground in the vicinity of the well, and noting how long it will be before salt water will be pumped therefrom.

The city engineer also includes in his report several arguments for the filtration plant, quoting prices for treating water, and outlining a system which he says will be ideal.

To the rate commission's claim that such plants are not practicable or safe except in the largest cities, Bradish cites that hundreds of such plants are in operation in cities of all sizes in the United States, and that with possibly a few exceptions, there is no such plant, constructed within the past ten years, but what is producing the very best results.

Bradish maintains that his theories on water are upheld by analysis

Those who can do so are urged to attend the Matinee Performance of

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorized druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what few days' treatment will do for you. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Special agent, O. T. Erhart, 620 Main street.

Chicago Grain Letter

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—There was considerable activity in the wheat pit today. At the opening, commission houses caused a bulge by heavy buying. Heavy northwest receipts, similar to those of a week ago, were reported.

An easy bear market was expected to corn today, on the face of previous condition of good weather, but the fact that the weather report showed rain and snow last night over the corn belt, and predicted further bad weather, caused fair gains.

Stagnation ruled in the oats market. There was no trading of importance on either side of the market. The total business did not reach 100,000 bushels.

Provisions were likewise dull, there being a fractional rise on early buying of a miscellaneous character.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

BADGERS SWAMP NORTHWESTERN

Lighter Line Weakens Before Attack of Wisconsin Team; Moll Is Star

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—As exponents of "Higher" mathematics University of Wisconsin young football giants proved a howling success on Northwestern field Saturday afternoon. When the annual sprint for touchdowns between the Badgers and the Purple eleven ended, Northwestern looked up to the tall totals of 23 to 3 which the athletes from Wisconsin had scratched on the score board.

Before the end of the first half the Purple stands ran out of lung power which overshadowed something unusual. When an Evanston rooster got his wind-pipes clogged a thing or two adverse to the peace and happiness of classic Evanston is transpiring on the greenward in front of the pine boards and that was the case Saturday. The score mounted so fast that the scoreboard artist got finger cramps in the second quarter.

It was busy doings from the start. Hardly had the ball become warmed up, before Moll dug his toe in the leather and tried a drop kick from the field. This attempt failed, but the quarterback soon made up by making a perfect forward pass to Hoffel which was good for a touchdown in the first session.

MICHIGAN WINS BY HAIR'S BREADTH

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 30.—Giving the Maize and Blue one of the toughest battles Ferry field has witnessed in years and threatening to snatch victory until the last moment of play, Vanderbilt university football eleven was defeated, 9 to 8, by Michigan Saturday in a contest filled with thrilling flashes of individual brilliance.

Michigan outplayed Vanderbilt a trifle in the first half, but in the final two periods the men of Yost fought as fiercely and as often to defend their own goal line as they did to batter Vanderbilt's defense in an effort to score. Neither team counted in the first two quarters. Each scored a field goal in the third. In the final period Wells, Michigan's All-American end, crossed the Vanderbilt goal line and Capt. Conklin kicked goal. A few moments later Capt. R. Morrison of Vanderbilt duplicated Wells' performance, but he put too much energy in his kick-out. The oval sailed over the heads of his team mates. Vanderbilt's chance to tie the score with the goal following the touchdown was forfeited. That failure gave the game to Michigan.

With the field at its best all the tricks of the trade were attempted, and Wisconsin especially relied on forward passes which worked smoothly. The Purple tried the ends but usually found a Badger or two on the wings.

NEW HAMMER RECORD

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Matt McGrath, the Giant cop, today is the happiest man in New York. After trying two years, he has set a new record for the sixteen pound hammer throw, which up to yesterday was held by John J. Flanagan, former New Yorker, who now is in Ireland. McGrath threw the weight 187 feet, 4 inches. This is three feet better than Flanagan's mark.

BARABOO STARS GO TO HOSPITAL

Brown, Stewart and McDonald Removed to La Crosse Hospital; None Seriously Injured

LOSS OF PLAYERS KILLS GAME

Weak Game Put Up by the Visitors After Men Are Out; Score Is 33 to 0

 Scores:
 McKann—Two touchdowns.
 Renner—Two touchdowns.
 Strum—One touchdown.
 Marshall—One touchdown.
 Jungbluth—Three goals.
 .....

The high school football squad defeated the Baraboo team in a slow but stubbornly fought game at the League park Saturday afternoon.

The first half of the game was slow and broken, due to the fact that time was frequently taken out by the Baraboo men on account of injuries.

The second half was a good exhibition of football in respect to speed and team work. The locals completely outclassed the visitors, who were somewhat weakened by substituting players for their injured men, and showed up in true championship style.

Baraboo lost three of their best men on account of injuries. Center Brown sustained a cracked rib; Fullback Stewart cut the back of his head by falling on a stone when he tackled Strum; Halfback McDonald received a kick in the neck. The three men were taken to the hospital in Ott's automobile in a supposedly serious condition, but the trio appeared at the high school dance Saturday night and were feeling none the worse for their injuries.

Strum, Hayes, Renner and McKann of the locals played a brilliant game. Twice Strum ran almost the length of the field for a touchdown, but one was not counted because a La Crosse man held a Baraboo player. Hayes smashed through the visitors' line frequently and broke up their plays. The high school line was always a stone wall and made huge holes for the back field men who went through for numerous long gains.

La Crosse won the toss and chose to defend the west goal. Baraboo kicked off to the 25 yard line to Strum who was downed in his tracks. La Crosse was penalized for holding and was forced to punt. The ball see-sawed back and forth in the midst of ragged playing and finally stopped in the center of the field at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter began with McKann making five through the line. Chamberlain made 25 on a forward pass. Time was taken out for Marshall, who had the breath knocked out of him. Chamberlain made three on a tackle around and McKann went over for a touchdown. Jungbluth kicked goal. Score, La Crosse 6, Baraboo 0.

La Crosse kicked off to the five yard line and Baraboo failed to gain on second down. A fumble was recovered by Hayes. Baraboo intercepted a forward pass and not making downs, was forced to punt. Strum returned the ball 10 yards. A Baraboo man was injured and taken to the hospital. After a few more plays, Stavrum was injured but not severely. Strum punted to the visitors who failed to make their downs. Time for the first half was called with La Crosse in possession of the ball.

During the intermission, Halfback McDonald was taken off the field because of his injury. The game was resumed by Baraboo kicking off to La Crosse on the 15 yard line. Marshall returned the pigskin 25 yards. Strum went through the line for 15 and again made five around the end. The locals were penalized for holding and were forced to punt. Baraboo punted immediately. On a quarter back run Strum made 15. Marshall tore off eight and McKann ripped through for 20 yards. Time was taken out for a Baraboo man. Strum made 10 on a formation play. McKann went through the line for a touchdown. Jungbluth made goal. Score, La Crosse 12, Baraboo 0.

Baraboo kicked off to Hundredmark, who was downed on the 15 yard line. Strum plunged through the line for 25. Weibrecht made seven through the line and Strum made another 25 around the end. Time was taken out for Stewart of Baraboo. Marshall went over for a touchdown from the 20 yard line. The ball was kicked out from the goal but was not caught. Score, La Crosse 17, Baraboo 0.

Baraboo kicked off to the 15 yard line. Weibrecht stiff armed his way for 40 yards, and Renner went over for a touchdown on a forward pass. Jungbluth failed to kick goal. Score, La Crosse 22, Baraboo 0.

The next few moments were used in a punting duel. La Crosse finally got the ball on the 50 yard line and Strum made a magnificent run for 50 yards and went over for a touchdown but the oval was brought back for holding by La Crosse. Strum punted and time was called for third quarter.

The game was resumed with Baraboo in possession of the ball in the middle of the field. The visitors were forced to punt. Strum received the punt and dashed 55 yards for a touch-

SPARTA HIGH IS HELD BY TOMAH

Battle Ends in Score of Five to Five; Game Is Called at End of Third Quarter

TOMAH, Wis., Oct. 30.—The Sparta highs and Tomah highs played a tie game of football Saturday afternoon, the score being 5 to 5. The day was windy and the grounds were in good condition. Sparta kicked to Tomah who advanced the ball down to the ten yard line, after a series of cross bucks and forward passes. Henry, Tomah's fullback tried a drop kick but the wind carried the ball wide of the posts. The first quarter soon ended and the ball was in Spartans possession on their twenty-five yard line. Both teams had possession of the ball during this period and Lang, Sparta's halfback, broke away and ran for forty yards before downed by Strachan, Tomah's quarterback. After a series of line bucks they successfully crossed the Tomah goal. Jefferson missed fair catch. Tomah kicked off to Sparta and at the end of the first half the score stood Sparta 5, Tomah 0.

At the beginning of the third quarter Tomah received and successfully worked two "shoe-strings" advancing the ball to the center of the field, where Henry punted, Tomah recovering. They advanced the ball to Sparta's five yard line where they were held for downs. Sparta attempted to punt which was blocked, the ball being recovered by Finnerty, Tomah's end, who made the touchdown. Strachan missed a fair catch. Score, Sparta 5, Tomah 5. Sparta received and after playing for some time the game was called at the end of the third quarter with the ball in Tomah's possession on Sparta's five yard line. The game was called at the end of the third period because the referee, H. Spence, had to catch the 4:19 train. Officials, Harry Spence, umpire, La Crosse; Hector Dine, referee, La Crosse; Lloyd Ailer, Tomah, headlinesman; Rex Gonderzick, field judge.

What good is the sense of sight to a policeman? He is never permitted to see anything!

down. The kickoff was fumbled. Score, La Crosse 27, Baraboo 0.

Another punting fest occupied the next few moments. When La Crosse finally got the oval in Baraboo's territory, Renner was sent over for a touchdown on a forward pass. Jungbluth kicked goal. Score, La Crosse 33, Baraboo 0.

Time was called directly after La Crosse kicked off.

Lineup:
 La Crosse—Renner, re; Chamberlain, rt; Jungbluth, rg; Hayes, c; Bovee, lg; Capt. Hundredmark, lt; Stavrum, le; Strum, q; Marshall, fb; Weibrecht, rh; McKann, lb.

You are cordially invited to a Laurel Reception to be held at our store from Monday, November 6th to Saturday, November 11th.

Come and Have a Good Time at Our Expense

These will be gala days at Boyer and Furber's. Everything that could possibly add to your comfort has been done. Delicious hot biscuits and coffee will be served free each day. Besides making ready for your enjoyment, we have prepared a surprise for you in the form of a Laurel Range in operation.

We'll Show You

Follow the arrows with your finger and you'll realize how the fire travels in a Laurel twin-flue range.

—through a specially constructed transparent top, why and how the "Laurel" twin-flue range will actually cut your fuel bills in halves—why you can cook twice as many things at one time—how the fire is controlled by the Laurel damper system and why it heats the oven as no other oven was ever heated before. We'll prove to you that it will pay you to dispose of your range, if you have one, and get a twin-flue "Laurel."

A Paper Smoke Stack

will be used to prove to you that all the heat from your fuel is used for cooking and that the pipe is only necessary for draft. Many other things will be shown and proven to you. You'll be interested and glad you came.

We'll Give You

—with each "Laurel" range (providing your order is placed during this demonstration)

A 26-Piece Silver Set

as illustrated here. Not a cheap set such as is usually given away, but a set you can be proud of, or if you would rather, we will give you a set of five Aluminum Kitchen Utensils.

We'll Sell You

—a twin flue "Laurel Range" at a price so low and on such easy terms of payment that no person who attends this demonstration and sees the great fuel saving features, the superior construction and elegance of a

Conklin kicked goal. A few moments later Capt. R. Morrison of Vanderbilt duplicated Wells' performance, but he put too much energy in his kick-out. The oval sailed over the heads of his team mates. Vanderbilt's chance to tie the score with the goal following the touchdown was forfeited. That failure gave the game to Michigan.

With the field at its best all the tricks of the trade were attempted, and Wisconsin especially relied on forward passes which worked smoothly. The Purple tried the ends but usually found a Badger or two on the wings.

NEW HAMMER RECORD

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Matt McGrath, the Giant cop, today is the happiest man in New York. After trying two years, he has set a new record for the sixteen pound hammer throw, which up to yesterday was held by John J. Flanagan, former New Yorker, who now is in Ireland. McGrath threw the weight 187 feet, 4 inches. This is three feet better than Flanagan's mark.

BAROONS AT WORK

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The Maroon football squad today entered the home stretch of their practice before their game with Minnesota next Saturday.

Signal drill will make up most of the week's work as Coach Stagg is afraid to risk injury through scrimmage practice.
